JUSTICE DYKMAN HONORED

HIS PORTRAIT TO BE HUNG IN THE WESTCHESTER COURT HOUSE.

yes Provided by Subscription Among the tembers of the Westchester County Bar Association Which Mad Its First Annual

The Westchester County Bar Association held its first annual banquet last evening at the Murray Hill Hotel and made the dinner the scasion for the presentation of a portrait of its guest of honor, Justice Jackson O. Dykman. The portrait, provided by subscription among the members of the association, was painted by maries A. Whipple, and is to be hung in the Westchester County Court House at White lains. Scated about President Theodore H. silkman of the association, who is Surrogate of estehester county, there were, besides Justice pykman at the chief table, Presiding Justice William W. Goodrich of the Appellate Division of the Second Department; Isaac Mills, former County Judge of Westchester: Chauncey M. Depew, D. Wiley Travis of Peekskill, Albert G. McDonald of Brooklyn, Peter B. Olney, County Judge William H. Robertson of olney, County Judge William H. Robertson of Westchester, Charles A. Whipple, former Judge Charles F. Brown, former Judge Nelson, and Justice Dickey, Justice Hatch, and Justice Garretson of the Second Department.

The presentation speech was made by Mr. D. Wiley Travis. Justice Dykman, in responding, referred to Dr. Depew, saying:

"You may be surprised to learn that this roung man went to school with me. I knew his lather and mother well. He gets his sturdy character from his father and his intellect from his mother.

Dr. Depew in his speech recited incidents of his first and last law cases in Westchester county.

his first and last law cases in Westchester county.

"In my last one," he said, "I was attorney for the Harlem Railroad. We had run down a farmer, paralyzed him, and killed his team. I expected the verdict would be $10,000. It was $700. I was paralyzed. The next day the foreman of that jury of Westchester farmers came into my office. I recognized him at once as an active politician of the Third Westchester district, whom Robertson and Jim Husted and I had always used on critical occasions. 'Chauncey, said he, 'those galoots wanted a verdict of $4,000. I stuck out till we got to $700. What do you think of a pass for five years? Then I knew that trial by jury was the palladium of our libertles."

Peter P. Olncy spoke for the New York Bar Association, Albert G. McDonald for the Brookin Bar Association, Justice William W. Goodrich for the bench, and ex-Judge Isaac N. Mills for the bar.

Receiver Asked for the Safety Deposit Com pany Run by Spaiding and Others.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Through a bill for a receiver lled in the Superior Court some more light is thrown on the transactions of Spalding, Churchand Avrill of the suspended Globe Savings lank. The defendant in the suit is the Globe afety Deposit Company, of which Churchill is President, Spalding Secretary, and Avrill Vicesident. The complainants are the Merrinack County Savings Bank and the Loan and mack County Savings Bank and the Loan and Trust Savings Bank of Concord, N. H., and the Nashua Savings Bank and the New Hampshire Savings Bank of Nashua, N. H.

The complainants aver that they have practically all of $30,000 worth of bonds issued by the defendant company. The bonds were secured by a trust deed on the leasehold of the defendant's premises in the Monadnock building and other property. The lease was given, it is represented, by Peter Brooks to the Globe Savings Bank, by the bank to Edward Hayes, and by Hayes to the Safety Deposit Company. When the bank failed, it is claimed, it surrendered its leasehold to Brooks and destroyed the security of the complainants.

descond to brooks and desconding the complainants.

The bill says the premises of the defendant are closed and that the receiver for the bank has refused to continue the business. The complainants declare that the defendant company has about $10,000 worth of property. They want a receiver appointed for it, so that their interests may be protected.

Therre's boat was overurned and both its occupants struggled in the vater until Myers's boat came up and rescued water until Myers's boat came up and rescued the woman.

Myers said that he made desperate attempts to pull Therre into his boat, but was unsuccessful. When a second attempt was made, Myers says, he was able only to touch the hair of the drowning man, who soon went down. Myers told this story immediately after getting back to the boathouse and then disappeared. Neither Myers nor the women have since been found, sithough a vigorous search has been made for them by the police. Therre was a barber, was 26 years old, and unmarried. His body was not recovered.

He says that he was removing the drug to a place of safety for a friend, but the customs officers declared that he was transferring it from the house which they had watched for weeks as the smugglers' headquarters. Sutton was released on bail.

Hawaiian officials say that they have evidence of extensive smuggling between Honolulu and Baa Francisco, and that Sutton is one of the gang.

SUES AN ESTATE FOR $425,000.

The Receiver of a Broken Bank Says Its For mer President Stole That Sum.

CINCINNATI, May 6.-David Armstrong, receiver of the Farmers' National Bank of Ports-mouth, O., filed a suit in the United States Court to-day against Anselm T. Holcomb, ad ministrator of the estate of George Davis, who r twenty years was President of the bank. The receiver presents claims against the estate amounting to $425,142.94.

The money, Armstrong alleges, was taken from the bank by Davis while he was President. The bank falled soon after Davis's death. His bookkeeper, J. L. Watkins, and cashier, J. M. Wall, were indicted. Wall was taken to the Ohio penitentiary last week to serve a five-year sentence. Watkins in San Diego, Cal., too sick to be placed on trial. Davis was supposed to be a millionaire.

MAY BOYCOTT JERSEY CENTRAL.

a Train with a Threat.

A meeting of commuters who travel on the road and on the Central Railroad of New Jersey was held yesterday in room 1309 of the Mutual Reserve building to protest against the rates charged by the two railroads, and also the small number of trains now run on the Long Branch division. A year ago a Commuters and Business Men's Association was formed, and under th lead of Mr. Laurus Loomis, the President, it has ecured several concessions from the Pennsyl vania Company, but none as yet from the Jer-Central. One of these concessions on the part of the Pennsylvania was to keep the 5:10 P. M. express from this city running all winter. All express from this city running all winter. All the fast express trains from Philadelphia to Asbury Park have also been retained on the schedule the entire year. In consequence of the readiness of the Pennsylvania to yield to the demands of the commuters they have endeavored to boycott the Central, especially in the matter of freight, and they say that as a result of their efforts the railroad lost 200,000 tons of freight during the year. Persons going to Asbury Park and adjacent towns have also been requested to patronize the Pennsylvania. It is thought by this time that the Central may be more willing to listen to the demands of the commuters for the coming season.

to listen to the demands of the commuters for the coming season.

A formal request was drawn up at the meeting yesterday, in which the Central Railroad was asked to run a morning express train for business men instead of the way train making twenty-ope stops which the business men are obliged to ride on at present. Should the Central refuse to grant this the commuters declarated the theorem with the commuters declarated the theorem with the same and the same at the same as will be asked to do the same. A year ago, when a similar request was made, no notice was taken of it. One of the newspapers on the coast printed the demands of the commuters, with the result that the company refused to allow the paper to be sold on its trains.

proving, though very slowly. If there were any truth in the reports of a contemplated issue of preferred stock I think I'd be likely to know something about it, and I can say that they are entirely without foundation. Values in the stock market have been affected by the decision of the Supreme Court in the Trans-Missouri Freight Association case, and people have not got over the shock. We had regarded the Supreme Court as a bulwark and refuge from the populistic attacks upon corporate interests and rights of property. The class of people who used to come into Wall street and buy 100 shares or so of stocks has been growing smaller. Those investors were a very important factor, and their absence is felt

The Suit Against Northern Pacific. The connection of James McCrea, First Vice President of the Pennsylvania Company, with the suit brought in Tacoma against the Northern Pacific Company does not indicate that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company wishes to ob Pennsylvania Hallroad Company wishes to obtain an interest in the Northern Pacific. The suit is against the old Northern Pacific Company, and the courts have decided that the successor company is not liable. The original judgment of $50,000,000 against the old Northern Pacific was assigned to Mr. McCrea by his brother-in-law as part security for advances, and as the assignment was put on record Mr. McCrea's name appeared as one of the parties plaintiff in the new proceedings.

Michigan Central Annual Report.

The report of the Michigan Central Railroad Company for the year ended Dec. 31 last shows that the number of tons of freight moved during the year was 7,276,270, a decrease of 194,68 tonnage of the previous year. Th number of tons moved one mile was 1,480.251, 521, a decrease of 7,738,309, and the rate per tor per mile was 0.636 cent, against 0.617 cent the previous year. The rate per passenger per mile was 2.268 cents, against 2.252 cents the previous year. In maintenance of way and structures $1,933.651 was spent, and $1,542,385 in main-tenance of equipment.

JEWELRY STORE ROBBED. The Thief Caught After a Long Chase in Which a Large Crowd Took Part.

James Jackson, alias Edward Hall, an ex-convict, who says he lives at 192 Orchard street, committed a bold robbery in the jewelry store of Isaac Aranof at 192 Orchard street yesterday afternoon. He was captured after an exciting chase of nine blocks, in which several hundred cople participated.

Aranof's wife, Yetta, was alone in the store with a five months' old infant in her arms when Jackson entered and said he wanted a watch repaired. While the woman was examining the watch Jackson seized a tray containing eight dozen gold rings and fled from the store. The woman dropped the baby and pursued him a that they will withdraw their patronage from it, and that all visitors to the towns along the coast will be asked to do the same. A year ago, when a similar request was made, no notice was taken of it.
